Vaughan & Alexander shipped 1 car load of hogs and cattle to Birmingham, Ala.

A solid train of thirteen cars of cattle and hogs, en route to Louisville, passed through Columbia last Saturday evening. The train was made up at Pulaski, and several cars were picked up at stations along the road.

All the personal property of the late R. E. Denham—including a number of fine racing stock—was offered for sale at auction by Mrs. Florence Denham, executrix, at the farm near Groveland last Saturday. The following animals brought the highest prices:

Smoke House Burned.

The smoke house of Mr. John M. Gray, on the Mt. Pleasant pike, and a small dwelling near by, with their contents, were consumed by fire last Saturday morning. About 12,000 pounds of meat were stored in the smoke-house, and it was from a small fire built to smoke this that the blaze originated. The exact loss has not yet been estimated, but it is thought that it will be nearly covered by insurance.

A Destructive Fire.

Last Wednesday morning about 2 o'clock the barn of Mr. Jno. C. Sowell, in the Lipscomb neighborhood, was discovered on fire. The flames had gained such headway that nothing could be done to check them. The barn, one of the largest in the county, was entirely consumed, together with a large lot of corn, hay, oats and some farm implements, and two fine mares, one colt, a riding horse, and three mules. The loss is estimated at $3,000. Insurance in the Guardian for only $1,000. The fire is supposed to be the work of an incendiary.

RELIGIOUS NEWS.

Rev. Sam P. Jones began his meeting in Nashville last Sunday.

The Cumberland Presbyterian church was eighty-seven years old last Thursday. The Cumberland Presbyterian, published at Nashville, in its anniversary number says:

"Just eighty-seven years ago today a devout man, who like his Master, had spent a whole night with God in prayer, came back to two other devout men whom the Lord had led thither, and with the confidence of conscious divine direction, declared his readiness to constitute; and what is now the great Cumberland Presbyterian Church was born that day. Thank God for the humble birth; and may God help us, although two hundred thousand strong, to continue duly humble."

Services are being held at the first Methodist Church, daily. Young peoples' service at 3:30 p. m. Preaching at 7 p. m.

Columbia is experiencing a more than usual religious fervor. The Business Men's Noonday Prayer-meeting continues to grow in interest, and the Cottage Prayer-meetings at any number of private homes, is likewise enjoyed by the ladies. Dr. Kelley is holding a series of services at the First Methodist Church every evening, with afternoon services for the children. In these services he has the cooperation of other pastors, and the attendance is good.

On next Sunday morning, at the Christian Church, by special request, Elder E. J. Meacham will preach a sermon on "Baptism."

Rev. Alexander Patterson, of Nashville, held services in St. Peter's Episcopal Church last Tuesday morning.

Rev. W. T. Ussery will preach at the Main Street Cumberland Presbyterian Church next Sunday morning. Rev. W. T. Waynick, the pastor, going to West Point to preach in the morning and returning in the evening to occupy his own pulpit.

At the Main Street Sunday-school last Sunday morning there were more than 80 pupils enrolled, and the number increases every week. Bro. Waynick says he has one of the most flourishing schools in the county.

There were no prayer-meeting services at the First C. P. and Baptist Churches Wednesday night on account of the protracted meeting at the First M. E. Church. The South Columbia M. E. Church will also dispense with their prayer service to-night.

THE COLUMBIA CREAMERY

Is Ready to Begin Operation Next Monday.

In the card from Judge E. D. Patterson to Hon. L. P. Padgett, President of the Columbia Creamery Co., which appeared in last week's HERALD, an unfortunate error occurred. The card, as it was printed, stated that a certain gentleman in Giles County received fifteen dollars a month from the milk taken from ten cows and sold to the Giles County Creamery. It should have read fifty dollars in place of fifteen. We gladly make the correction, and trust that the error has done the creamery no harm.

A meeting of the stockholders is called for next Monday, and a full attendance is urged. The creamery will commence operation the first of next week, and it is to be hoped that the farmers will take hold at the beginning and make it a success.

We publish below a letter from Mr. W. W. Ogilvie in regard to the creamery at Lewisburg.

Mr. L. P. PADGETT:—In regard to the creamery at Lewisburg, I will say that the farmers, and especially the farmers who patronize it, find it a very profitable business. It is universally regarded as the most profitable and money-making business the farmers can engage in. This is the common talk. I know one farmer who keeps forty cows, many of which are mere strippers, and last month he got in cash, $133.70 for one month's sale of milk. This man said to me that his sales each month were from $130 to $150. All the patrons are well pleased with the creamery and there has been a constant increase of patrons furnishing milk all the time.

Very truly, W. W. OGILVIE.

Tax Payers Take Notice!

Owing to the great scarcity of money, I will hold the tax books open for payment of taxes until Monday, March 1, 1897; after which time the books will positively be closed and costs will accrue.
